

Resource Centre

Professional Membership

Our Resource Centre has over 20,000 items to support early childhood educators meet their professional needs. We provide resources to continue our learning and challenge our thinking.

Child Australia Professional Membership includes:

Professional resources such as books, journals and DVDs to support the professional development of educators in Services, Inclusion Support Agencies and other organisations.

Multi-cultural resource boxes are based on

- Celebration of events;
- Storytelling and
- Anti-Bias Curriculum.
- Encouraging English as a second language

The resource boxes are user-friendly and include a series of 4 Professional Development workbooks, and PowerPoint presentation to support educators in ensuring a sense of cultural competence is embedded into their everyday practices and directly linked with the National Quality Framework.

Resource items to support Inclusion : children's books on disability, inclusion, emotions and family and available including support materials such as Makaton and Board Maker.

Interactive Kits such as Chatter Boxes, E-Kits (on emotions) and Show Me Tell Me Kits (augmentative communication) to help educators meet children's language and social needs.

Access to the online member's login where educators can access:

- The Policies To Go By manuals have been recently updated with help of a consultation group representing all sector types to include the National Quality Framework.
